March came in like a lamb, yesterday being the mildest day so far this year. There was a large crowd in town, the spring-like weather bringing out the folks from the farm.

The Comedy presented last Friday evening by the W. A. was much appreciated. The performance was in every way a great success and the ladies are to be congratulated.

We understand that a number of requests have been made for the Play to be put on again in the near future, and that the W. A. members will decide on the matter at the meeting to be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jim Hayes.

The play was carried through the three acts with plenty of action, all the members showing to good advantage in their various characters.

During the second act one of the "stage-hands" inadvertently walked into the green room, but he turned around and walked right out again.

The following ladies took part: Mesdames M. Barker, J.
Ehlinger, A. Foster, Jim Hayes, the acts.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Science and Rural Life

Benefits of Scientific Achievements Should be More Fully Applied

Science has proved itself a great friend of mankind. Every department of civilization has been more or less benefited as the results of scientific experiment have been applied. Rural life has been perhaps slowest of all to reap the advantages of scientific knowledge. This was not because of lack of opportunity or need, but probably because the rural mind is naturally conservative and cautious about innovations. The keynote of most of the addresses on rural problems today is the wider application of science to all phases of rural life—farm and home both. This is important. Agriculture is first in time as an industry and first in order of importance. Civilization will get a great uplift and human progress a great impetus forward when rural life fully applies as it may the benefits of scientific achievements. It will result in better farming methods, accompanied by greater prestige and respect for the whole profession. It will benefit the farm home and make life vastly more attractive and agreeable there than it has ever been. Some homes today are quite model in reference to these standards, but the majority are lacking. "Science" is used in the broadest sense as touching every phase of home and outdoor life. Surveys show that very many homes have failed to relate themselves with the most common advantages such as lighting, power, bath room and ventilation. These improvements ought to come faster than they have, and until they do farm life will not be as attractive as it deserves to be.—Manitoba Free Press.

THE WORLD'S BEST REMEDY FOR ALL KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLE

The Cause of all the Trouble

Low Price of Farm Products Affecting Trade

The field crops of Canada had in 1921 an aggregate value of $985,949,000, according to the preliminary estimate of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The value placed on the crops of Quebec was $192,773,000, but revised figures have raised the amount to $219,154,000, a substantial betterment of $26,381,000. Whether final figures will increase in estimate for other provinces is uncertain, but what is sure is that the income of the farmers of Canada has suffered a serious diminution in the last two years. In 1919, field crops had a value of $1,537,170,000, so that it may be assumed the harvest of 1921 represented a loss of not less than half a billion dollars, or approximately one-third in gross value. The loss in net return should not be so great, since the price of farm labor was less than in 1919, and the cost of commodities purchased by farmers had also been somewhat reduced. The fact remains, however, that $500,000,000 taken out of the revenue of farmers from field crops must adversely affect the general trade of Canada, and necessitate the carrying over of loans to farmers until another crop has been gathered under more favorable economic conditions.—Montreal Gazette.

The Family Physician.—The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and in healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

Service Should Be The Cardinal Policy Of Every Business Enterprise

Under the above title and in conjunction with the business course of the Alexander Hamilton Institute of New York, Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has contributed a little pamphlet known as Lecture No. 24. Based upon the author's ripe experience, it is an authoritative message from his special field of business activity and under various heads, deals with man's struggle with nature; the personal element in business; the pioneer spirit; etc.

In view of the author's prominent position throughout the business and railway world and his rapid and early attainment of the presidency of the Canadian Pacific Railway, his message is of more than unusual interest at this time of general depression. It will be read and studied by hundreds of students enrolled in the Hamilton Institute and serve as an exhortation and example to them in their future struggles for advancement and success in whatever field of endeavor they may have chosen.

Some extracts and aphorisms from the pamphlet are as follows:—

"Eliminate effort and you drain the spring of life. It is not attainment so much as the striving for it that lends zest to our existence. Work is not a curse but a blessing as those know, only too well, who are deprived of it through sickness or accident. For most of us the business of living is an all absorbing occupation."

In regard to "Man's Struggle with Nature," he says:—

"Self-preservation is not only the first law of nature it is the first law of business. Every man struggles to maintain his own for himself and for his family, and all his acts are dictated by that effort. The forms of struggle are held in check by the civilization we enjoy, but the struggle is there. The second law is to hold our own, to better our position, to strengthen our grip on all that makes life worth living. Each one working steadily in his own interest not only adds to his own welfare but improves mankind."

Relative to the "Personal Element in Business":—

"In the largest company or the most complex corporation the driving power of the individual is the keynote of progress."

Regarding "Interference of the State as a Regulating Factor in the world of Business":—

"The Excess of State Interference can be just as excessive as business enterprise. It is, as it were, a corrective medicine. Now medicine may sometimes be good for a man. It does not, however, follow that in order to be well we should be fed only on pills."

Discussing "State Socialism as a Remedy for the Ills of Business":—

"How many an illness is due to selfish excess. How often the decay of a once powerful company is due to its abuse of privilege and disregard of the interests and opinion of the community it ought to serve. The company or business enterprise that lives for itself and is not conducted ultimately with an eye to its usefulness to the community is an unhealthy business and a source of instability. It incorporates a wrong ideal of conduct, and, sooner or later, is bound to come in conflict with public opinion, to its own ultimate ruin. That business which desires a good old age must be conducted in a spirit of service—service to the community, and service to the public. It will be conducted all the better if it is virile and progressive, full of initiative and new ideas, free from red tape, official rules, cast-iron precedents and regulations, but it ought always to be conducted in the spirit of good citizenship."

And on "Service, Key Note of Sound Business," he concludes:—

"The moral of all these considerations is that Service should be the cardinal policy of good business. If we keep in mind that we are, above all, servants of the public, we cannot go far wrong. Our object is to supply the needs and contribute to the well-being of the people, our clients. We may be as enterprising, as full of initiative, as inventive in ideas and methods as possible, and this initiative is best fostered if we can count on a reasonable reward, but if we keep Service as our watchword, our individuality will always be guided in the right direction. Such a spirit will conduce more than anything else to success, but the success will not be achieved at the cost of the public welfare, and it will obviate all likelihood of the public wasting time, energy and money in attempting to run your business for you."

"If I may be permitted to give an instance from the history of the company which I have the honor to serve, I should like to illustrate my argument from the case of the Canadian Pacific Railway. That railway holds the unique record of being the only large private railway enterprise in the world that escaped the fate of being taken over by its government ever temporarily as a result of the Great War. My firm belief is that its immunity was due to the impregnable position it held in the confidence of the people of Canada through its record of service ever since its construction as a transcontinental railway."

Canada's Greatest Boy Violinist

Winnipeg Newsboy Now in England Makes Wonderful Progress

Ben Loban, of Winnipeg, who was once a ragged little newspaper boy, and is now Canada's greatest boy violinist, has arrived at Liverpool aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Metta.

He was recently awarded the silver medal offered annually by the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music, gaining second highest marks in the Dominion in the advanced grade examinations. This entitles him to two years' free tuition at the Royal Academy of Music in London.

It is said that when selling newspapers the boy approached John Waterhouse, late of London, and now violin teacher in Winnipeg, and said he wanted to learn to play the fiddle. Mr. Waterhouse agreed to teach the lad, who has made most notable progress.

Fewer Heavy Horses

Canada Suffers Falling Off in Breeding Operations

The Clydesdale Horse Association of Canada, in session in Toronto, adopted a resolution urging the authorities to strive to improve the quality of heavy horses in Canada.

It was reported that in the past three years there has been an increase of 200,000 horses in the country, but a decrease of 130,000 in colts and fillies, indicating a marked falling off in breeding operations.

Louis XIV. of France, when a child, was presented with a set of toy soldiers costing $5,000.

Livestock Industry On Sound Basis

Herds Are Increasing and Better Animals Being Produced

Not since 1914 has the livestock industry of this country been on a sounder basis than the present (says the Toronto Globe). War prices of a few years ago, while encouraging unhealthy production, were also responsible for the liquidation of much inferior stock, while the more recent sharp slump in commercial prices, particularly in cattle, resulted in another wholesale disposal of cull animals. A gratifying feature of the change has been the more universal introduction of pure-bred blood into Canadian herds, made possible by the easier prices of stock of this breeding, a natural consequence of the partial collapse of quotations in the commercial market. The present shortage of feed in Ontario and other eastern provinces is causing some liquidation, but little good commercial stock is being sacrificed, while conditions throughout the west, in this connection at least, are most satisfactory.

There are 200,000 more cattle in Canada at present than in 1914; the production of hogs is increasing, and though a decline in sheep population is still reported, this is only to be expected in view of the revival of popularity of these animals during the war.

The Heart of a Watch

The Balance-Wheel Pulsates Some 432,000 Times A Day

The heart of a watch is the balance wheel and unless it is perfectly constructed and made to withstand varying changes in temperature it will not pulsate accurately, and will soon cause the watch to lose or gain. On account of the different temperatures which the ordinary watch mechanism must stand, it is necessary for the balance wheel to be made of metals which expand and contract at rates which offset each other. For this reason the wheel is made of finely tempered steel while set around the rim in such a manner as to preserve perfect balance. Bits of brass which act as a check upon the expansion or contraction of the steel. When it is remembered that the balance-wheel of a watch pulsates some 432,000 times a day, and that the delicate mechanism must be adjusted to withstand changes of temperature ranging from below heat to a number of degrees below zero, it will be seen that precautions such as the use of at least two metals are essential to the operation of a watch which will keep perfect time.

Derivation of "Salary"

The derivation of our word "salary" is very curious. In ancient times Roman soldiers received a daily portion of salt as part of their pay. "Sal" in Latin is salt, and when the salt was, in course of time, commuted for money, the amount was called "salary," and hence, no doubt, the expression, "Not worth his salt"—that is, his salary.

Splendid Work Performed Through Assistance Of The Agricultural Instruction Act

Information for the Farmer

Close Upon 450 Different Publications Obtainable by Application to the Department of Agriculture At Ottawa

A new series of pamphlets emanating from each branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture is to be issued. Number one of this series comprises a full list of the publications which can be had free on application to the Publications Branch of the Department at Ottawa. Incidentally it might be mentioned that these applications if mailed direct to the branch do not need postage. Glancing over the list, it is impossible to avoid the thought that if farmers, merchants, shippers and others interested in agriculture and its products were to study this class of literature more than they do, and act on the information therein contained, they might suffer less in seasons of depression. As showing the wide variety of the publications on agriculture which are obtainable, by the simple process of dropping a line to the branch, the present list gives the titles of half a dozen reports of the department, including those of the minister, itself embracing some account of the doings of every branch, of the Agricultural Instruction Act, of the Dominion Entomologist, of the Veterinary Director General, of the Record of Performance of Pure-Bred Dairy Cattle, of the Record of Performance of Pure-Bred Poultry, and of thirty-two divisions, farms, stations and sub-stations of the Dominion Experimental Farm System, also of 63 bulletins, circulars and pamphlets relating to field crops, 49 relating to livestock, 34 relating to dairying, 43 relating to insect pests and plant diseases, 47 relating to the orchard and the garden, including all kinds of fruits, vegetables and flowers, 35 relating to poultry. Thirty-six are placed under the heading of Miscellaneous, and include information on a variety of subjects in which farmers and their wives and families are particularly interested. There are thus no fewer than 345 publications available, all dealing with agriculture and its multitude of problems. In addition there is an especially timely informative periodical "Seasonable Hints," the circulation of which runs up into the hundreds of thousands.

Price of a Battleship

Would More Than Support all of America's Missionaries

The price of a single battleship today is quite beyond the comprehension of the ordinary citizen. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, missionary secretary in the Presbyterian Fellowship, has a statistical mind, and he recently figured out what a battleship would buy in missions.

He asserts that the entire missionary programme of America, reaching sixteen countries, 4,000 cities and employing 24,000 American workers and 109,000 native workers, is being carried on at an expense less than the price of one battleship.

If the price of several battleships were put into Christian missions, there can be no doubt that peace and goodwill throughout the world would make larger progress.

Queer Laws in Bavaria

Five Years Penal Servitude Is Penalty For Overeating

Bavaria is determined to put down excessive eating and drinking and to this end a bill has been introduced in the Diet to punish gluttons with fines amounting to 100,000 marks. ($200). In the case of a second offence the punishment would be five years' penal servitude.

It is significantly stated that foreigners residing in Bavaria will not be exempted, and that restaurants which encourage gluttony (Schlemmerel) are also liable to heavy penalties.

Prices Jump in Vienna

Street car fares and the price of gas and electricity have just been advanced 100 per cent, making them 14 times more than they were one year ago.

The cause of agricultural education in the prairie provinces has benefited in nine years to the extent of $1,848,040 out of the ten million dollars voted by the Dominion Parliament under the Agricultural Instruction Act to be distributed between the nine provinces of the country during a period covering ten years. On March 31 of the present year nine years will have elapsed and there will be only one year more to run. At the expiration of that time Manitoba will have received $707,572.68, Saskatchewan $748,700.23, and Alberta $617,475.12, a total of $2,073,548. The report of the working of the act for the year 1920-21 has just been issued. In Manitoba $69,000 of the year's grant was devoted to Agricultural Representatives, Boys' and Girls' Clubs, Short courses and Home Economics. The balance was divided between dairy work, poultry work, soil analysis and survey, beekeeping and the Killarney Demonstration Farm.

In Saskatchewan, of the year's grant $38,415 was devoted to research work and the extension service, and to agricultural instruction in public, high and normal schools, household science, training of teachers and nature study; $7,500 went to women's work; $7,000 each to school fairs and demonstration trains; $5,000 to field husbandry; $3,000 each to animal husbandry and dairying; $7,200 to Agricultural Representatives; $1,600 to a post-graduate course in agriculture and agricultural scholarships, and $5,000 to a veterinary short course.

In Alberta, more than fifty per cent of the year's grant, or $40,000, was devoted to the maintenance of the six agricultural schools of the province, $14,900 to agricultural representatives and their work; $3,500 to women's work; and $2,500 to the poultry and egg marketing service. While details of the use of the provincial apportionments may differ from year to year, the summary here given of the uses to which the last completed year's grants were put sufficiently indicates the general trend of the valuable work that is being encouraged and performed with the aid of funds provided under the Agricultural Instruction Act of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Ex-German Ships Sold

Lord Inchcape Has Only One More to Dispose Of

Recently there have been offered for sale 16 ex-enemy steamers, which were undergoing repairs in German yards with a view to their classification in the highest class of German-ship Lloyd before delivery to purchasers. It is officially stated that the whole of these ships have now been sold to British buyers.

In addition, there have been disposed of four prize steamers, including the Field Marshal, and one prize sailing ship. The Field Marshal will not, however, be available for her purchaser until May next, when she will be released by the government from the troops service in which she is at present engaged. It is understood that the prices obtained are in the present state of the market for secondhand tonnage, considered to be very satisfactory.

Lord Inchcape has now disposed of all the ex-German ships, 465 in number, allocated to him for sale up to date save one, the Antonina, a cargo steamer of 5,500 tons dead weight, built in 1898.

And then, quite unexpected, it came upon her, and thrilled her frame from toe to temple. Jim Travers! It had been in the background of her mind for months, the centre of the subconscious processes which culminated in this revelation. Yes, Fred Arthurs at twenty-five must have been such a man as Jim Travers. Jim Travers at fifty would be such a man as Fred Arthurs. She was absolutely sure of it. Jim was living his own life, seeking out that which was worth while, culling the incidental from the essential, just as Fred Arthurs must have done. She remembered with sudden joy how Jim had held a little kindness to her of greater moment than the impudent engine in the ploughfield; the scores of little labours he had undertaken, not as a sacrifice, but as a privilege—as his contribution to human happiness. She

Appetite Good,
Gained 20 lbs.
Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts, Laverna, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, become very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicines and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

would marry Jim Travers. The strange part of it was her sudden certainty that she should marry him. She found herself enveloped in a sense of possession, a feeling that he was hers—hers now, this minute, and hers for ever. Beulah was a fatalist although she had never analyzed her own beliefs enough to know it, but she knew that Destiny had linked her life with his and that Destiny would not be balked. Her mind had been racing its way, through the darkness of months, to this sudden ecstasy, but now that she had reached it she felt that it could never, never fall her. Her sense of possession, of mergement, was complete; she felt that already their souls had mingled irrevocably and indistinguishably.

The arrival of her mother at the Arthurs' ranch had brought fresh joy to Beulah's life. She saw the colour coming back to the old face, the frame straightening up a little, the light rekindling in the eye, the spring returning to the step. She had not thought that her mother, after twenty-five years of unprotesting submission, had still the nerve to place a lift on that submissiveness, and the discovery had her mother, had delighted her. True, Mary Harris let it be known that she was only on a visit, and in due course would return to her home; but Beulah knew the die had been cast, and things could never again be quite as they were. And Beulah, too, was excited, and her mother just kissed her and let a tear or two fall in her hair.

So this morning, as the girl stretched her young limbs, rounding with life and energy, and the burnt-orange glow of sunrise suffused the room and lit the pink tresses of her slender fingers, she rested in the deep peace which, ever since her revelation, had enveloped her about. For a minute she let her mind dwell on the picture she carried in her brain, until the association became too keen and threatened to overwhelm her from very tenderness; then she sprang from her bed, and, flipping the window-blind to the top, drank in the beauty of the valley through the open windows. Her bedroom had windows both to the east and the west; and it was her custom to awaken early and feast on the glory as it surged up the valley, and then, turning, watch the long waves of light sink slowly down the white mountains. And this morning, when she thought the first beams must be gliding the highest peaks, she turned to the westward window and saw the light playing under a Chinook arch across a segment of sky so soft and near she could almost feel it with extended fingers. And then a sound caught her ear, and up the trail she saw two men on horseback, a mounted policeman and another, and behind them other men driving in a buggy.

By intuition Beulah knew that a mishap had occurred. The Arthurs' ranch was the first abode of real civilization on the way out from the mountains, and it was nothing unusual for a lumberman with a chopped foot, or a prospector caught in sliding rock, or a river-driver crushed between logs, or a hunter the victim of his own marksmanship, to come Huping or riding down the trail to this haven of first aid. Quickly she drew on her simple clothing and hurried downstairs, but Arthurs was already at the door. The little party came into the yard, and the policeman rode up to the door. The other horseman sat with his back to the house; his hands were chained together in front of him.

"Good-morning, Sergeant Grey," said Arthurs. "You're early out."

The sergeant saluted. The salutation was intended for Arthurs, but at the moment the policeman's eyes fell on Beulah, and even the discipline of the Force could not prevent a momentary turning of the head.

"I've a badly hurt man here," he said, "a man who will need your hospitality and care for some days. There was a shooting up the valley last night. His father is here, too, and hurt, physically, but on the verge of collapse, if I am not mistaken."

"We will bring both of them in at once," said Arthurs. "Beulah, will you call Lilian, and your mother, too? They may be needed. But who is the third?" he continued, turning to Grey.

"A prisoner. It seems the older man overpowered him. Now let us get this poor fellow in." The policeman beckoned and Harris drove the buggy up to the door. Arthurs glanced at him with a casual "Good-morning," but the next instant his eyes were riveted on the visitor. "John Harris!" he exclaimed, taking a great stride forward and extending his strong arm. "Man, John, I'm glad to see you, but not in these troubles."

Harris took his hand in a silent clasp, and there was a warmth in it that set his heart beating as it had not for years. "It's hard, Fred," he managed to say in a dry voice, "but it's good to have you by."

Arthurs bent over Allan, who was half sitting, half lying, in the buggy. His face was sapped and grey in the growing light. Tenderly the three men lifted him out. "Take him straight upstairs," said Arthurs. "It will save moving him again." Both spare-rooms in the house were occupied, but Arthurs led the way into Beulah's, and they laid the wounded boy on the white bed.

Arthurs heard Beulah in the hall. "Take off his clothes, Grey," he said, and turned to the doorway. "Where's your mother, Beulah?" he asked in a low voice, closing the bedroom door behind him.

USEFUL FOR OVER 500 PURPOSES

Gillett's Lye can be used for so many purposes that their enumeration here would be impossible. For example, Gillett's Lye can be used for making soap, in washing dishes, also as a disinfectant. For softening hard water. As a means of removing grease and smoke stains. These are only a few of its many uses, but they serve to indicate what has made Gillett's Lye such a general household utility to-day.

"Dressing." The girl looked in his face, and drew back with a cry. "What's the matter, Uncle Fred? What's wrong?"

"A friend of mine has been hurt, and an old friend of your mother's. She must not see him just now. You will arrange that?"

"Yes. But I must see him—I must help."

Beulah hurried to the room where her mother was rapidly dressing. "A man has been hurt, mother," she said, with suppressed excitement. "We need hot water. Will you start a fire in the range?"

Mary Harris mistook Beulah's emotion for natural sympathy over a suffering creature, and hurried to the kitchen. Mrs. Arthurs was whispering with her husband in the hall, but a moment later joined Mary at the range.

Then Beulah entered the room. The policeman speaking to Arthurs. "I must go into town now with my prisoner," he was saying. "I will send out a doctor at once, and in the meantime I know you will do everything possible."

Beulah turned her eyes to the bed. A man was lying there, and an old man was sitting beside it. At the second glance she recognized him, but in an instant she had herself under control. She walked with a steady step to the bed and looked for a full minute in her brother's face. Then she looked at her father.

Government Said To Be Considering Plans For New Wheat Board

Ottawa—While consideration of the proposal has not yet reached that stage where it is possible to give any indication as to the course which may be laid down by the Government, it is understood that the matter of re-establishing a Canadian wheat board has been receiving serious attention at the hands of Premier King and his colleagues.

In the west the feeling is stated to be at the present time in favor of the re-establishment of such a board and the Cabinet is expected to reach a decision on the matter between now and the time the House meets.

Together with the question of a wheat board, the matter of continuing the grain trade enquiry is understood to be under consideration. One of the suggestions which has been put forward, it is understood, is that the grain enquiry shall continue but that it will be carried on by a reconstituted board.

MIRACLE WORKED AT DUBLIN MEETING

PEACE IS 'SPRUNG-ON DELEGATES WITH DRAMATIC SUDDENNESS

Dublin.—With dramatic suddenness a peace agreement, reached at the 11th hour between Free State and Republican leaders, was sprung on the Ard Fheis, or national Sinn Fein convention, and the huge gathering of delegates, impatient of any delay likely to endanger the pact with Great Britain, gave it unanimous approval and adjourned for three months. The general feeling was that in preserving intact the party organization, something like a miracle had been worked.

The net result of the two days' meeting of the Ard Fheis is to insure that no election can be held in Ireland for the next three months and that when it is held the issue will not simply be for or against the treaty to determine the judgment of the Irish people on the actual terms of a constitution in which the treaty will be embodied.

Supporters of the Free State have contended throughout that the treaty enables Ireland to frame for herself a constitution giving all the essentials of freedom, but the Republicans have denied this and have quoted interpretations placed upon the treaty in speeches by Mr. Lloyd George and other British cabinet ministers.

All the objections to the agreement raised on the floor after Eamon de Valera had announced its terms emanated from prominent Republicans.

DISPLAY CANADIAN PRODUCTS IN LONDON

INVITATION BEING EXTENDED TO MANUFACTURERS TO TAKE SPACE

Toronto.—Canadian manufacturers are to see the benefits of showing their products in London, England. On February 6, the Department of Trade and Commerce published in their weekly journal an article by A. T. Wilgerson, Canadian Government trade commissioner, specially assigned to interview the big independent houses of London who act as purchasing agents for world markets. He reported at length to the effect that Canadian goods would be very welcome, but could not be considered unless our manufacturers had permanent representation in London with samples and prices available.

An invitation is being extended to all Canadian manufacturers to co-operate by taking space and showing their products. The men behind this national enterprise are planning to eventually show all classes of Canadian products in Cape Town, Melbourne, Buenos Aires and other capitals.

For Six Years She Was Troubled With Pains and Aches But Found the Relief She Looked For in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Pettis Mechanics, Matane Co., Que.—(Special).—Rejoicing that she is again in good health after six years of suffering, Dame Edmond Roy of this place is singing the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills. "You can tell everyone," says Dame Roy, "that the pain in my side has disappeared and that my strength has come back." "I suffered for six years," she continues, "I was also troubled with rheumatism, cramps in the muscles, backache and headache. I took only eight boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The reason that Dame Roy got such prompt help from Dodd's Kidney Pills is that every one of her troubles is a symptom of kidney trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys to do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood. Ask your neighbors about Dodd's Kidney Pills."

DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH?

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco. Mr. Frank Lutes, 11 Terrace Hill St., Brantford, Ont. writes:—"I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on me sometime if I did not cut out tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going. I should say, about 120 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 20 pounds in weight."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The F. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Ardiel Says She Was Astonished By The Wonderful Change

"Three years of suffering from stomach trouble have ended with me in the last few weeks and all on account of the wonderful benefit I have received from Tanlac. When I began taking it nothing agreed with me and I dreaded for mealtime to come round as the sight of food nauseated me. My sleep was broken, my nerves were on edge and I felt as miserable as a human being could feel.

"All this was quickly changed by Tanlac and I am like a different person now. I never dreamed a medicine could do what Tanlac has done for me."

WRECK OF THE ROMA

BELIEVED ACCIDENT WAS CAUSED BY BREAKING OF ELEVATOR RUDDER

Norfolk, Va.—A statement by Major-General Mason M. Patrick, head of the army air service, that he believed the destruction of the airship Roma was due to an accident to the controls regulating the altitude of the craft, is the only official statement from any of those investigating the accident which caused the death of 24 persons, the injury of eight others, and the destruction of the world's largest semi-rigid airship.

General Patrick expressed his opinion on the basis of the testimony he had heard thus far and substantiated statements previously made unofficially by survivors of the wreck that the elevating rudder, a contrivance resembling the wings of an airplane and attached to the stern of the Roma, buckled and fell forward, forcing the craft into a nose dive, which ended when she crashed into a high power electric transmission line, caught fire and burned with the greater number of her crew and passengers pinned beneath.

In applying for information relative to press clipping services furnished by the Pacific Press Bureau, of Vancouver, a large mail order concern of the middle west of the United States, says: "We would like to receive information regarding country papers of British Columbia that do the least advertising, and data regarding towns most likely to prove profitable for our mail order business, as we intend opening a wide campaign for new customers. We can sell cheaper than the country stores and give better service. We are out for more business."

And there you have it—the mail order buzzard that seeks to compete with the local merchant and grab local money for commodities that can be purchased at home. Of course, the distant mail order people want information on towns that are not interested in advertising in the home paper, shows quite clearly that they have no hope of competing with the local merchants that carry a regular message in the home paper.

Two lessons are conveyed in this: One is to trade at home and keep the money from getting away, and the other is the necessity for advertising by the local merchant if he wants to gain and retain home support. —Summerland Review.

Effective February 25th, we have made a substantial reduction in prices on all Lumber and Building Supplies.

We have voluntarily made this reduction in our selling prices in anticipation of reduced freight rates on shipments of lumber into our yards from the mills. Freight rates on lumber are still 50% in advance of pre-war tariffs. In the hope and anticipation that these rates will come down we are reducing our prices now.

We are taking the chances. You will make the saving, as long as our present stocks last. Let us figure on your requirements at our new prices.

Mother! Clean

Child's Bowels With California Fig Syrup

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give it liberally to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teapoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Work of Land Speculators

Edge Has Not Yet Been Taken Off Western Progress

"The Premier of Manitoba is sharpening the axe for land speculators," says the Toronto Globe, which adds: "But not before land speculation has taken the edge off Western progress." The Globe is mistaken. The edge has not been taken off Western progress, except as Western progress has been affected by the same world conditions that affect the progress of Toronto. And it will be Western progress principally that will later send Toronto's unemployed back from the streets to the factories.—The Calgary Herald.

Alberta's Seed Fair

Oats and Wheat Almost Perfect, Says Judge F. S. Grisdale

Never has there been such an exhibit of grain in Alberta, both as to quality and quantity, as is shown at the provincial seed fair held in Edmonton, stated F. S. Grisdale, following the completion of his work as judge at that fair. In some of the oat classes the first four prize winners were so close that the decisions might have been reversed without much criticism. They were almost perfect, he stated.

This was true of both oats and wheat, and compared most favorably with the first prize winners at world competitions. There was a splendid exhibit of alfalfa seed, some of it, though not all from the irrigated districts. One sample that came into the prize money was grown way north of Vermilion, and it was suggested by Mr. Grisdale that if such good seed can be grown in clovers and alfalfa, it should be put on a commercial scale.

WINTER HARD ON BABY

The winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels, and break up colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. It therefore requires a constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE gives the patient strength by improving the general health and assisting Nature in doing its work.

Cream Lace Lightens Black Satin Frock

By Marie Beimont

Black satin is the fabric for spring and when it is developed with the new skirt of circular movement the effect is charming indeed.

The frock above of soft black satin finds individuality in its insets of cream colored radium lace and its attractive metal girle. The circular skirt is reappearing and promises wide popularity. A compromise of this mode is sometimes seen in circular insets at either side.

Veritably, dresses may be built around fancy girdles this spring. The girle here is of two slender silver chains enclosing at intervals square ornaments containing flat red stones.

First Stamp Dealer Dies

Had Been Conducting Prominent Trade in London Since 1860
London's first stamp dealer, William Simpson Lincoln, has died at the age of 78.

When at school in 1854, Mr. Lincoln began collecting, and became the possessor of about 210 varieties, which he kept in a small book.

Two years later he began exchanging with a fellow collector, and this was soon followed by ventures in dealing. From 1860 onwards he took a prominent part in the trade, conducting his business from a small shop in High Holborn. Over twenty years ago he moved to his present premises.

Worms, by the irritation that they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and mal-nutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

LORD LISTER & Zam-Buk

Lord Lister's discovery of antiseptic surgery has saved the world a lot of lives, but it has been left to Zam-Buk to bring into millions of homes the full benefits of antiseptic healing.

Zam-Buk is the greatest antiseptic healer the world has ever known. Being of a natural vegetable origin Zam-Buk has distinct and positive advantages over old style mineral ointments.

Zam-Buk is a compact and highly-refined herbal balm with an antiseptic power many times greater than that of any ordinary salve or ointment. Zam-Buk kills and excludes disease germs, and instantly allays pain and irritation. It first cleanses a sore place and then grows over it a new healthy skin. As a first-aid dressing for injuries, and for soothing-out such troubles as eczema, ulcers, ringworm, abscesses, poisoned wounds and piles, Zam-Buk is used the world over. It has the high endorsement of Dr. Andrew Wilson and other well-known doctors, surgeons and nurses. 60c. box, 3 for $1.25, all dealers.

That Is What You Can Do Provided You Take Advantage of Our Offer

We have made arrangements with the E. H. Heath Co. Limited who publish the CANADIAN POWER FARMER whereby we are able to offer that farm magazine together with our own weekly at the one price for both papers.

The CANADIAN POWER FARMER is Western Canada's biggest farm monthly. It is now in its twentieth year which means that it is thoroughly established throughout the West. It deals with the mechanical side of the farm. Every issue is full of helpful hints and experiences on the operation of all kinds of farm machinery from a washing-machine to a tractor. Its editor has just completed a trip of several months over Western Canada in a motor car for the purpose of studying the mechanical needs of the farmers. He visited the farmers, lived with them and worked with them. The results of his trip will appear during the next twelve months.

This offer may be withdrawn at any time. Without doubt your intention is to renew for this weekly, then why not take advantage now. Your subscription to this weekly together with a year's subscription to THE CANADIAN POWER FARMER for the same price as this weekly alone. This is where you make $1.50 on a bushel of wheat.
